
Avraham wasn't feeling well.
Hashem made the sun very, very hot so he could rest and feel better.
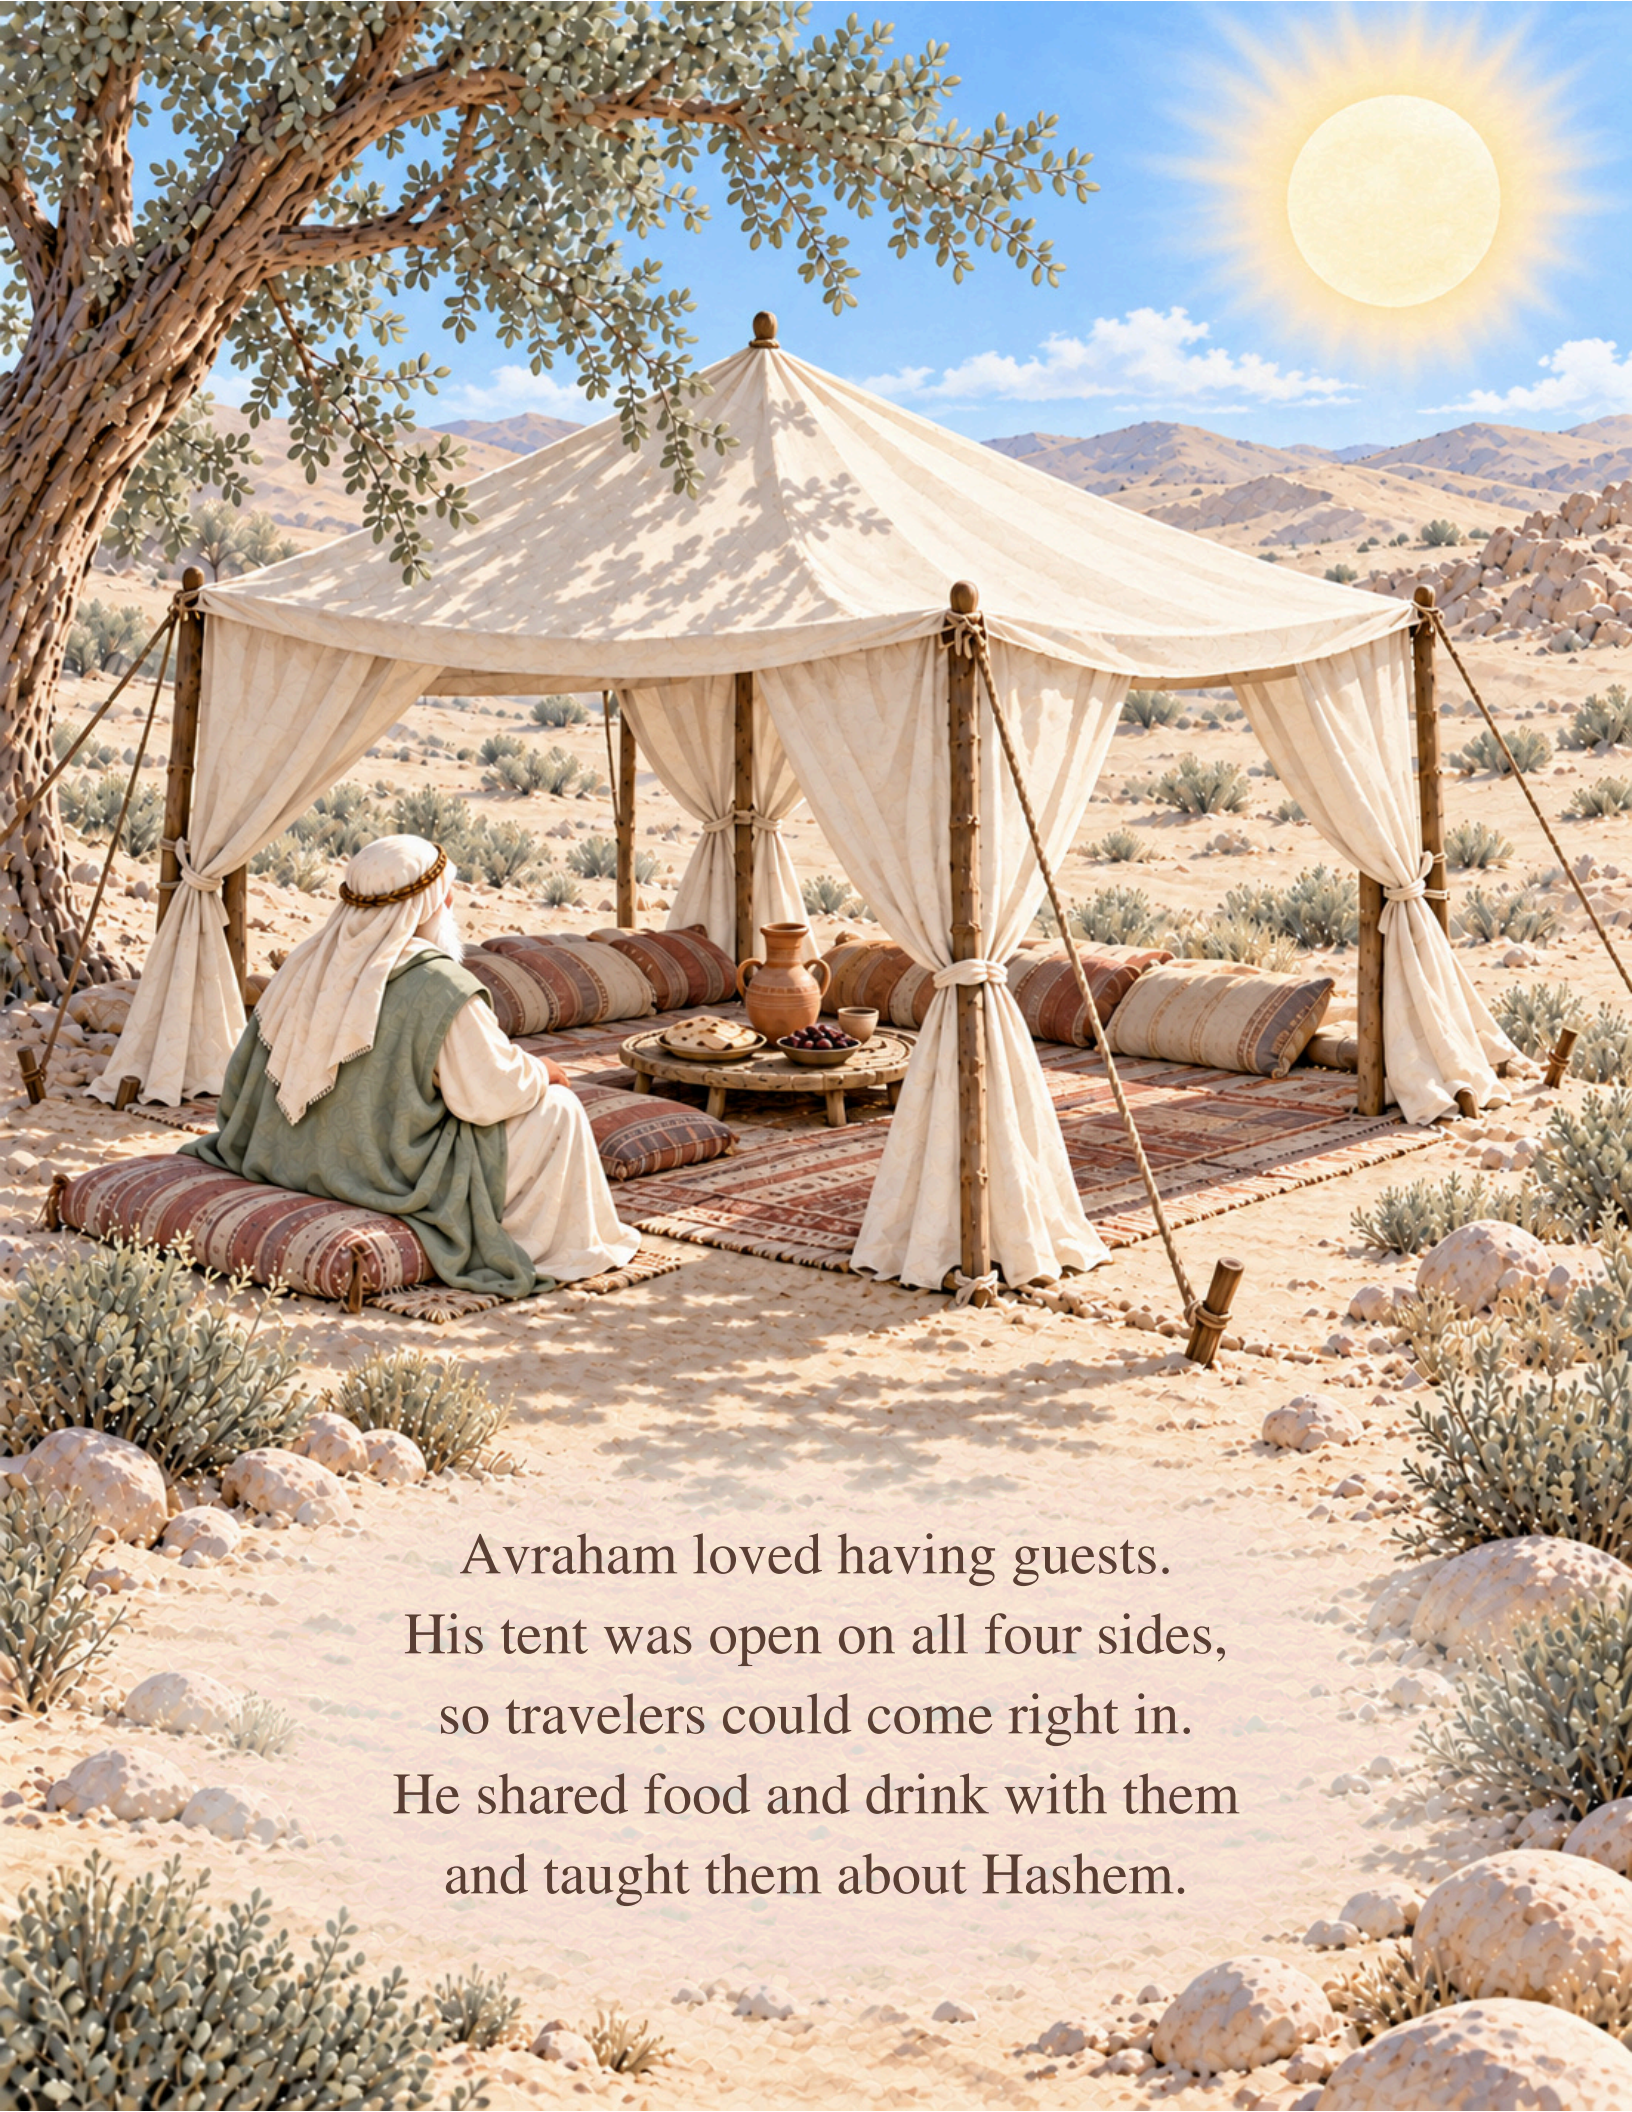
But Avraham loved welcoming guests!
All day, he watched and waited
in the hot, hot sun.



Avraham loved having guests.
His tent was open on all four sides,
so travelers could come right in.
He shared food and drink with them and taught them about Hashem.

I can be like Avraham and Sarah.
I can be like Yitzchok!
Hashem loves me so much,
and I can fill the world
with goodness and kindness.
I am so special, and so are you!
