After many years of living with Lavan,
Hashem told Yaakov it was time to go back to Eretz Canaan, the land of his father Yitzchok.

Yaakov gathered his family and started the long journey home!

Do you remember Yaakov's brother Eisav?

Eisav had been very angry with Yaakov. Now, after many years, Yaakov was going to see his brother again.

Yaakov sent Malachim ahead to speak to Eisav. He hoped his brother wasn't angry with him anymore!

Hashem promised Rochel Imeinu that her children would one day come home.

When Moshiach comes, all the Yidden will come home to Eretz Yisroel!

Every Mitzvah we do helps bring Moshiach closer.

"Please, Hashem, bring Moshiach NOW!"
